

Amatnieki, Ropažu nov. Stārasti, Latvia

Price on request

Basic information

Property type: Land

Land area: 20500.0 m²

Land use: Mixed type buildings

Additional information

A small part of the land borders the river.
By the river Nature and greenery area;
Approximately half of the land is located in the territory of the construction of detached houses,
The other side is located in the area of low-rise residential construction.

The main type of use of the territory for the construction of detached houses is the construction of detached houses and semi-detached houses.
The main type of use of the low-rise construction area is low-rise apartment buildings; row house; construction of different social groups.

Possible land division depending on the specifics of the planned object, but not less than 1200 m², for semi-detached houses 600 m², for townhouses 300 m².

For other building conditions, see the territories of Garkalne district planning - Territory use and construction rules.

